Winter Business Class Table Tennis Competition Enter your workplace now!

Business Class Table Tennis is all about business people getting together to play social table tennis.

There are several 6-week leagues throughout the year where businesses can enter teams of two players to fight it out for the Business Class Cup/Shield. When numbers permit the competition is split into grades.

If you or your colleagues want a bit of competitive fun for a couple of hours an evening once a week, check out the Business Class Entry page and get involved!
